Campers entering sixth through eighth grades will produce a short film from start to finish during this week-long overnight camp.

Working in teams, campers will write original scripts, design costumes, arrange music, act, film, and edit their productions. Afternoons and evenings include typical camp activities: swimming, outdoor games, talent show, arts and crafts, and campfire. This camp provides an opportunity for middle schoolers to develop their talents in a fun, out-of-school setting while getting to know other young writers, artists, and aspiring film-makers from across Eastern Oregon.

Sr. High Camp and Jr. High Camp

At the fall 2009 youth retreat, junior and senior high campers discussed ways to incorporate more service to our communities into the traditional camp program. We thought it was a fantastic idea, and based on those discussions chose the theme for the summer, "to love and to serve."

We'll do at least one service-based project at each camp. We'll also continue building on last summer's theme of sustainability, continuing to expand the camp garden, hanging a few more bird and bat houses around camp, and spending more time exploring the beautiful Eagle Cap Wilderness Area a few miles from camp.

Check in begins at 3:00, please be at camp no later than 5:00. Camp ends at 8:30 am on the last day of camp.

*High School students driving to camp must turn their keys over to the Program Director at the time of arrival. Keys will be returned the last day of camp
